FOSTER WHEELER AWARDED TWO CIRCULATING FLUIDIZED-BED BOILERS FOR CAM PHA POWER PLANT IN VIETNAM

HAMILTON, BERMUDA, November 6, 2006--Foster Wheeler Ltd. (Nasdaq: FWLT) announced today that Foster Wheeler North America Corp., an operating unit of its Global Power Group, has been awarded a contract by Harbin Power Engineering Company, Ltd. (HPE) for the design of two 545 tons per hour sub-critical circulating fluidized-bed (CFB) steam generators for the Cam Pha Power Plant Power Project in Cam Pha, Vietnam.

The contract, valued at approximately $12 million, calls for Foster Wheeler to provide HPE, a subsidiary of Harbin Power Plant Equipment Group Corporation, with two 150 megawatt (MWe, net) CFB boilers to be used at the Cam Pha power station. The two boilers are designed to use waste anthracite and slurry and will provide steam to a single 300 MWe reheat turbine.

The award will be included in Foster Wheeler's third-quarter 2006 bookings.

"We are delighted with this important award which combines Foster Wheeler's advanced CFB technology with our partners in China for a project in Vietnam," said Gary Nedelka, chief executive officer of Foster Wheeler North America and Power Group Asia.

Construction at the site is expected to begin in the second quarter of 2007, with commercial operation scheduled for mid-2009.

2. Safe Harbor Statement

This press release may contain forward-looking statements that are based on the Company's assumptions, expectations and projections about Foster Wheeler and the various industries within which it operates. These include statements regarding the Company's expectation about revenues (including as expressed by its backlog), its liquidity, the outcome of litigation and legal proceedings and recoveries from customers for claims, and the costs of current and future asbestos claims and the amount and timing of related insurance recoveries. Such forward-looking statements by their nature involve a degree of risk and uncertainty. The Company cautions that a variety of factors, including but not limited to the factors described under Part II, Item 1A. "Risk Factors" in its most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q, could cause business conditions and results to differ materially from what is contained in forward-looking statements: changes in the rate of economic growth in the United States and other major international economies; changes in investment by the power, oil and gas, pharmaceutical and chemical/petrochemical industries; changes in the financial condition of the Company's customers; changes in regulatory environment; changes in project design or schedules; contract cancellations; changes in the Company's estimates of costs to complete projects; changes in trade, monetary and fiscal policies worldwide; currency fluctuations; war and/or terrorist attacks on facilities either owned or where equipment or services are or may be provided; outcomes of pending and future litigation, including litigation regarding the Company's liability for damages and insurance coverage for asbestos exposure; protection and validity of the Company's patents and other intellectual property rights; increasing competition by foreign and domestic companies; compliance with the Company's debt covenants; recoverability of claims against the Company's customers and others by the Company and claims by third parties against the Company; and changes in estimates used in the Company's critical accounting policies. Other factors and assumptions not identified above were also involved in the formation of these forward-looking statements and the failure of such other assumptions to be realized, as well as other factors, may also cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. Most of these factors are difficult to predict accurately and are generally beyond the Company's control. You should consider the areas of risk described above in connection with any forward-looking statements that may be made by the Company. Foster Wheeler undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You are advised, however, to consult any additional disclosures the Company makes in proxy statements, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, annual reports on Form 10-K and current reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
